

2021 Year-End Review Suffolk Bar Association Tax Law Committee

Relecting on 2021, we are proud of the programs presented by the Tax Law Committee. Karen J. Tenenbaum, the managing partner of Tenenbaum Law, P.C., came in as the new chair with the goal of getting more attorneys involved in the committee – both as speakers and attendees. She hosted a series of panels every month featuring many distinguished speakers. These presentations covered a broad range of topics including Financial & Legal Aspects of Today's Estate Planning, Offer In Compromise & Other Procedural Tax Topics, Trust Taxes From A Civil And Criminal Standpoint, Covid-19 Tax Planning Opportunities, Everything You Need to Know About Partnership Law, and Year-End Income Tax Planning for Individuals & Businesses. We're happy to say that we have gotten an excellent response to these programs and are grateful to all those who dedicated their time to participate in these panels. This year's successes would not have been possible without everyone's support. We look forward to 2022 when we will continue presenting panel discussions with diverse perspectives on tax law.
